Nancy Wynne Speaks of Another June Wedding—She Tells of Mrs. Van Rensselaer's Luncheon

Did you hear that Esther Ward and Philip Kimball will be married on Monday, June 12? She is a Wilmington girl and has often visited here. She went to Westover to school and was a great many girls in Philadelphia, including Mary Forcher—who she is now—Betty Elliott, Fawcett, Marion Savage Heyniger, who married moved to Orange since her marriage, and others. Esther is the president of the Wilmington League in Wilmington. She is very attractive and popular and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Ward. The dance comes from Charles. They will be married at Centerville, near Wilmington, where the Wards live.

LIVE NIGHT The Mask and Wig gave their show, "Tall Tales," in Wilmington and in one of the boxes in the theatre were President and Mrs. Harding. Mr. George Wharton Pepper was there, too—Mr. Pepper is one of the "old grads" from the most interesting of the audience. He is a splendid actor and actress in this play. Don't you agree with me? Why have you not seen that show and "Why not?"

I WAS sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Charles F. Herwind last Saturday in Paris. Her husband had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. Herman, in that city for several months. Mrs. Herwind had lived in Philadelphia at Walnutwood and at the Belmont. She was the mother of Mrs. Robert E. Strawbridge, who is now Mrs. Anita Berwind, and Anita is Mrs. Strawbridge's her grand-daughter. No one can deny that she was one of the most popular of the debutantes. Two other daughters of Mrs. Berwind are Baroness von Klitz and Baroness Gertrude von Klitz. Mrs. Charles Howard Montgomerie is a sister.

MRS. ALEXANDER VAN RENSSELAER is going to give a luncheon next Monday, the 8th, in the Red Room of the Bellevue to meet the officers and Board of Managers of the Women's Church Institute. A great many people are interested in the Institute, which does a wonderful work among the sailors. Have you ever gone there on Sunday evenings? On Thursday evenings they have similar entertainments, too, if I am not mistaken. Several hundred men are given supper and entertainment and afterward there is a service in the chapel. Once a month different girls and men go down and wait on the tables and help with the entertaining. Some of the girls who are gone down on different occasions are Mary and Elizabeth Howard, Nancy Barclay, Mary Fahnstock, Josephine and Elizabeth Thompson, Marie Smith, Bertha Boyd, Marjorie and Sarah Harrison and lots of others.

OUT on the Main Line a May Fete is being planned in aid of the Institute's building fund, for eventually they want to erect a new building similar to the one in operation at New York. The fete will be held on Friday at the Merion Community Association grounds, on Hazletwood avenue, at Merion. Mrs. T. Duncan Whelan is chairman of the fair. There will be general dancing and a second competition in charge of Mrs. Frank Moss and Mrs. William Norris. Music has been volunteered by the Haverford College band.

A tennis tournament will be run by Sarah Nelson Madeira, who herself is a well-known player, and there will be a flower market, including plants and vegetables, under the direction of Mrs. Langdon Lea, Mrs. Henry Baily and Mrs. Percy Simmon. Mrs. Thomas G. Ashton and Mrs. Charles Perkins will have a Punch and Judy show and Mrs. Howard E. Eisenhower will be in charge of other fascinating things to do and buy, and in case of rain the fete will be postponed until the next day. But we are having such lovely weather, I am sure there will be no such calamity.
